The annual YF&R membership dues are $25 for 2009. Please make your check payable to Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau and indicate YF&R membership on the reference line. Farm Bureau Young Farmers and Ranchers are active agriculturists like you—involved in production agriculture, banking, business, and many other areas of the industry. Membership in SBYF&R does not constitute membership in the Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau. Farm Bureau membership is separate and apart from your membership in the SBYF&R committee. The SBYF&R is a committee overseen by the Santa Barbara County Farm Bureau. Membership in the SBYF&R committee is open to all individuals between the ages of 18-40, however, participation in state and national YF&R activities and competitions is restricted to members between the ages of 18-35.
